

Art enthusiasts in Bicester raise money for bereaved children

19th May

By Matthew Norman

Community Reporter

@OxMailMattN1

Share

0 Comments

Dozens of art enthusiasts turned up to an artweeks event to help raise money for children who have lost a loved one.

The Bicester volunteer coordinator for Oxfordshire Artweeks, Graham Perryman, organised an artistic fundraising event held at a temporary shop premises on Sheep Street, next to the post office.

READ MORE: Festival of music to return this month

Any proceeds from the sale of artwork on display – produced by artists from in and around Bicester – went towards See Saw, a charity that provides support for children when they have been bereaved or when somebody close to them is terminally ill.

Mr Perryman organises an event like this every May, during the artweeks period, but day-to-day he runs Dragonfly Framing, a bespoke framing store in Bicester.

Oxfordshire Artweeks has been running since May 6 and will end on May 29.

<https://www.oxfordmail.co.uk/news/23535528.art-enthusiasts-bicester-raise-money-bereaved-children/>