

LOCAL TALENT:
Flowers, the Language of Love

With love in the air this month, Oxfordshire Artweeks artists showcase art inspired by flowers. ▶

1 Horti Show Blooms by Nicola Durrant is mixed media (acrylic, ink, charcoal and oil bars) painted onto a box canvas. Presented in a white timber float frame, £995 durrant-artwork.com ▶

2 Blackbird and Blossom by printmaker Charlie Davies who was recently invited to become a member of The Society of Botanical Artists. £145 unframed or £185 framed charliedaviesdesigns.co.uk

3 Alexandra Buckle's Sunflowers, Rain Showers is a linocut. £280 mounted, alexandrabuckle.co.uk

4 Bringing in the Garden Flowers by Christine Erica Bainbridge is oil on stretched canvas. £150, christineericabainbridge.com

5 A Glorious Glow by Celine Beaugrand is a digital painting. A4, mounted, £35 artykiddy.com

6 Summer Stars by Harriet Eagle is oil on cradled panel. Framed with a wood surround, £550. harrieteagle.com

7

7 Bleeding Hearts and Pink Forget-Me-Nots is watercolour on paper by Lin Kerr. Unframed £150, linkerrdesign.co.uk

8 Cornflowers, a watercolour by Colin Stokes is available in three sizes as a Giclee Prints. Prices vary from £15-£50 stokeseyart@gmail.com

8

9

9 Spring beckons... by Kay Gibbons is an original watercolour. Framed £140, and greeting cards are available for £3 from West Ox Arts Gallery, Bampton. kaygibbons@kaygibbons.art

10

10 The Kiss of Winter by Sue Eves shows a climbing rose frozen by winter's kiss. It's painted with transparent paint on an acrylic sheet. Framed, £200 fox.eves@gmail.com

11

11 Eternal Love is an original oil painting on canvas by Karina Tarin. This painting is rich with symbolism of love, loyalty and friendship: in the language of flowers, roses and tulips represent love whilst the zinnia is for friendship. The swans themselves symbolise eternal love and loyalty. Karin has been influenced by Dutch flower paintings, and it's a huge, joyous, colourful celebration of love and life. Framed, £2,800, karinatarin.co.uk

12

12 Garden flowers is an oil painting by Jayne Ford. £495, jayneford.com

OXFORDSHIRE
art
WEEKS