

LOCAL TALENT: Your Oxford

Last month a joint open call from Oxfordshire Artweeks, Oxford Festival of the Arts and Photo Oxford resulted in a fascinating exhibition: What is Your Oxford? at Pembroke College JCR Art Gallery. Local photographers caught on camera facets of the city some of which may rarely seen or understood by visitors. Here are twelve that caught our eye.

1 Red city by Adrian Krajewski

2 Let me be your guide by Howard Sherwood

3 Fast Food, Cornmarket, January 2022 by Angus Taverner

4 Cyclist by the Bridge of Sighs by Jenny Van Steenberg

5 Wolf in Transit by Tracey Welch and Brett Evans Biedscheid

6 Mirror, Mirror or the Wall by Aseem Bandali

7 Student waiting outside exams school by Kirk Ellingham

OXFORD
FESTIVAL
of the ARTS

- 8 Beaumont Buildings by Etain O'Carroll
- 9 Fog on the canal by Isobel Reeve
- 10 Stairway to Knowledge by Dee Robinson
- 11 Thames Water Mural, Isis Bridge, Oxford by Paul Freeston
- 12 Parks Blur Punting by Denis Kane

10

11

12

The winning selection can be seen on-line at artweeks.org/latestshow

Oxford Festival of the Arts runs until July 13. For more the many varied events – art, music and more. See following page for more.

Photo Oxford is a biennial festival which will next take place from 26 October-15 November. See photooxford.org for further information.