

LOCAL TALENT:

Inspired by Autumn

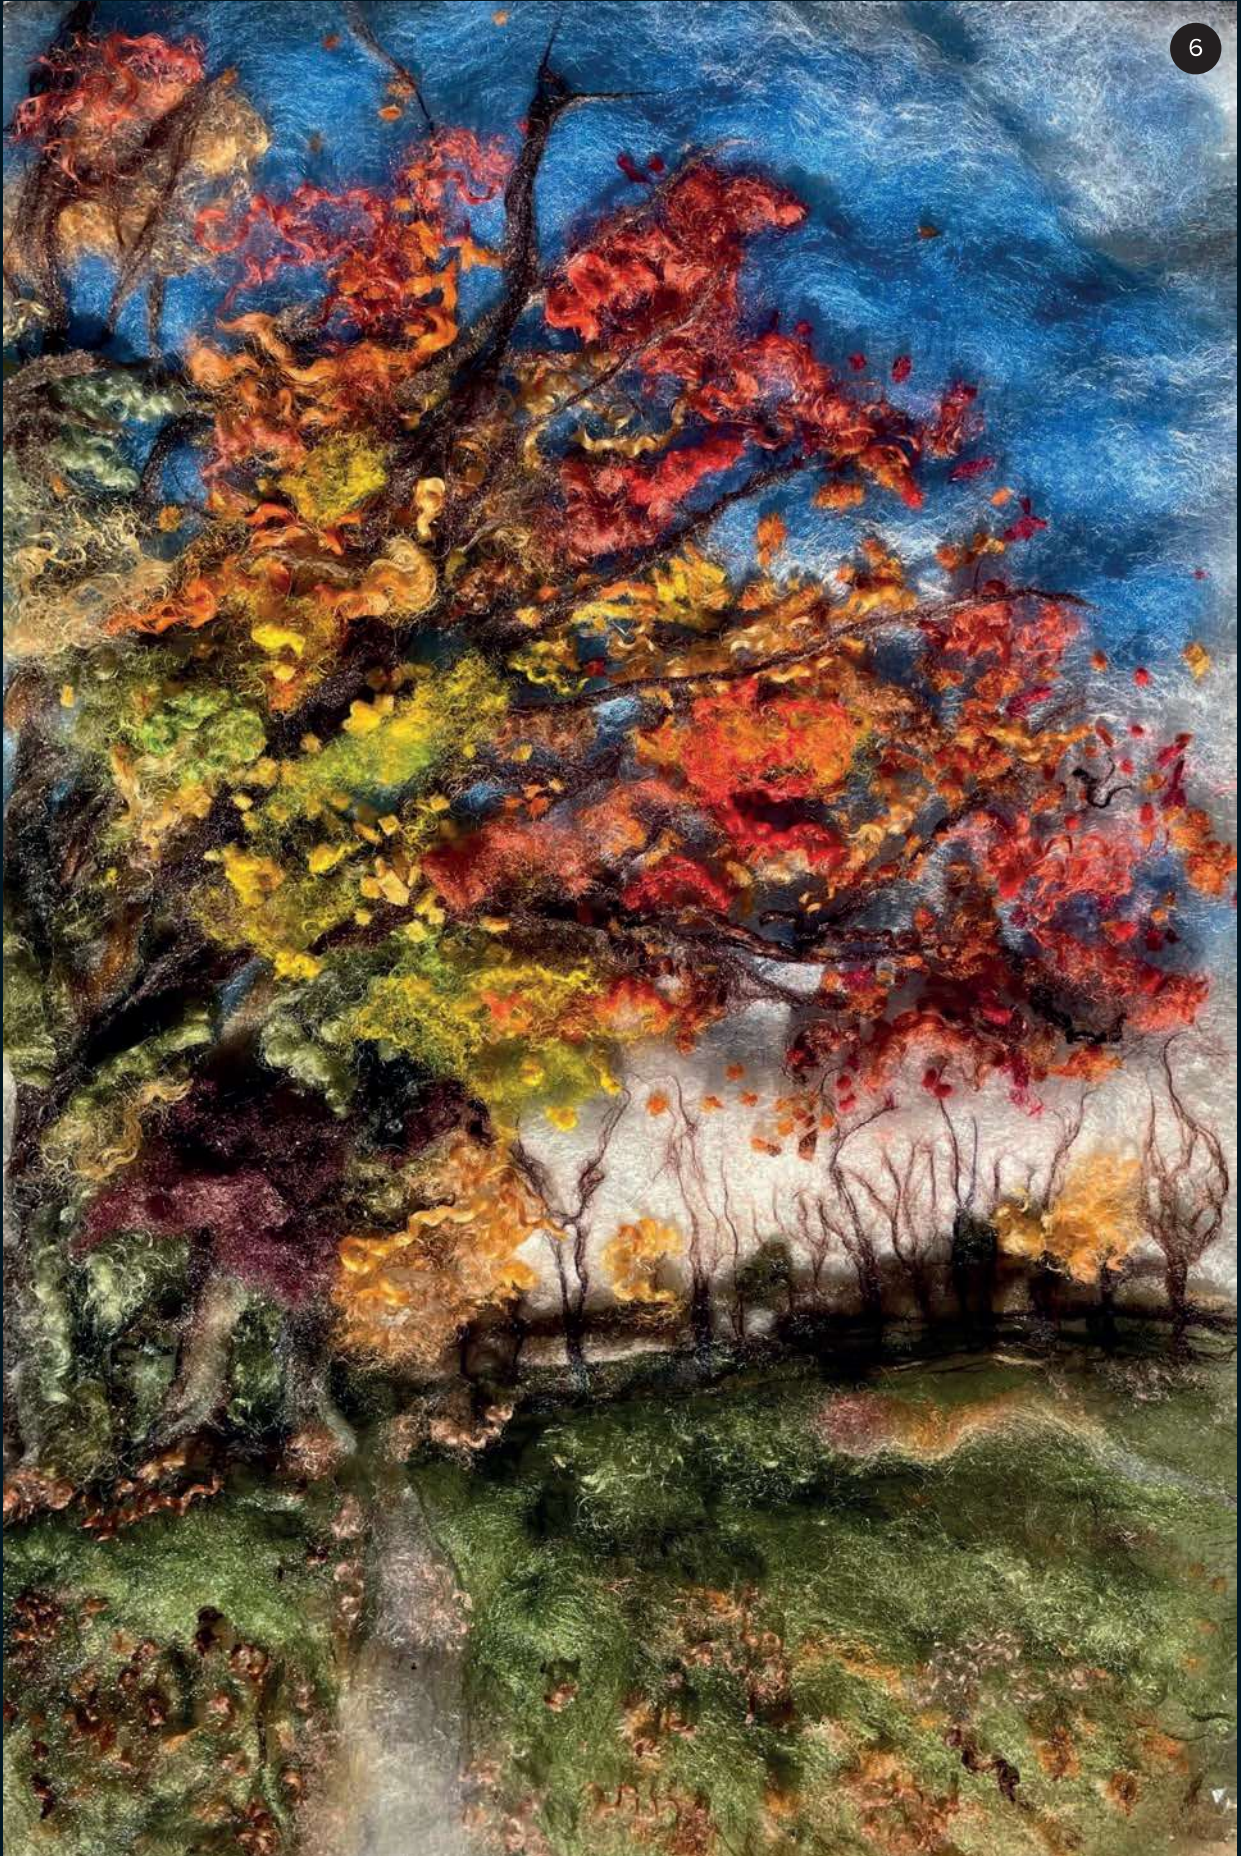

This month Oxfordshire Artweeks artists are presenting a varied online seasonal show packed with art and gifts inspired by the autumnal hues across the landscape: the wildlife and bounty within them, and the promise of winter. Here are some that caught our eye but there are many local artists and artisans taking part in this and other festive events throughout November and December. Find out more at artweeks.org

- 1 Rebecca Rowland, Sheets Heath in fused glass, £185
- 2 Candia Groom, Onions in watercolour and graphite. Prints from £60
- 3 Jessica Parker, The Red House; mixed media with collage, £995
- 4 Stella Campion Autumn mice and blackberries bowl in silver. Commission your own, POA
- 5 Louise Gustafson, Coming Home in acrylic on stretched canvas, £150

6

7

6 Sarah Roche, Autumn on the Leys in wet-felted Merino wool tops, with blue-faced Leicester curls and mulberry silk, £350

7 Kumiko Kihara, Brooch – Love letter under the Willow Tree in sterling silver with 24ct gold leaf and mother of pearl disk, £1,240

8 Carol Harvey, Memory of a Meadow: natural cordage and dried meadow flowers, £200

9 Judith Yarrow, Frosty morning – Evenlode Valley, in acrylic and inks, £790 (framed)

8

9

10

11

OXFORDSHIRE
art
 WEEKS

10 Louise Brook, Winter in acrylic and mixed media, £225

11 Bry Leighton, Still Life with Space Hopper. Hand-cut paper collage, £350

12 Andrew Forkner, Bramble Light – Wren in acrylic on panel, £295

12