Open doors, open studios and open imaginations

Welcome to the 44th Oxfordshire Artweeks festival during which you can enjoy an amazing variety of art by Oxfordshire artists, designers and makers - in artists' homes and studios, in galleries and gardens, churches and a wealth of other art spaces.

From the traditional to the contemporary and multidisciplinary, across the county there's something to delight, intrigue and inspire everyone. Explore painting, sculpture, ceramics and printmaking; look out for fashion and furniture; discover glass art, mosaics and other marvels; and perhaps choose a treasure or two to take home with you.

Within these pages you will find a variety of types of exhibition, all of which are free to visit – simply drop in during their opening hours. Some artists team up to host group shows while others open their studios (look for the Open Studio icon throughout this guide). All welcome you both to enjoy the art on show and to chat about their materials, methods and ideas. At most venues, some of which are extraordinary in themselves, you can meet the artist or maker. If you are keen to see a particular person, please call ahead to confirm when they will be there. In some places there are also demonstrations and you'll also find some excellent cake (look for the demos and refreshments icons respectively) throughout this guide.

Thank you for supporting Oxfordshire's artist community.

The Oxford Art Society was founded in 1891 and is a membership organisation for committed artists with diverse and exciting styles who live in Oxfordshire. The Society holds regular Open and Members' exhibitions as well as providing opportunities for younger artists to show their work. Membership is by invitation. Look for the initials OAS in this guide to find members' work. For more information visit www.oxfordartsociety.co.uk

The Oxfordshire Craft Guild draws together designer-makers representing a wide range of traditional and contemporary crafts, and holds temporary and permanent exhibitions throughout the county. Membership, which is by selection, is a sign of the finest design ability and highest quality craftsmanship. Look out for the initials OCG in this guide to find Guild Members' work. For further information go to www.ocg.co.uk or www.facebook.com/oxfordshirecraftguild.

West Ox Arts is a lively association of artists and art enthusiasts, many of whom take part in exhibitions alongside artists invited from across the UK. Their Gallery is an inspiring, light-filled venue that sells a wide range of contemporary, high quality art and offers various workshops, demonstrations and special events throughout the year. It is situated on the first floor of Bampton's Town Hall in the Market Square. For more information or to become a member of WOA visit www.westoxarts.com. You can also find them on facebook at www.facebook.com/westoxarts

Oxford Printmakers Co-operative (OPC) has been running for over 40 years and is an open access Fine Art Print workshop offering a high standard of printmaking facilities. It currently has 100 members many of whom are professional artists exhibiting in the UK and abroad. It holds regular exhibitions and runs courses in many print processes including linocut & woodcut, wood engraving, etching, monoprinting, screenprinting, collagraphy and stone lithography. Look for the initials OPC in this guide to find members' work. For more information go to www.oxfordprintmakers.co.uk

South Oxford Arts is a community arts organisation based at South Oxford Community Centre. They provide opportunities for the local community to participate in the creative arts, from visual arts, poetry, sound, dance to performance, and to exchange ideas, find peer support and mentors. They offer regular art classes, music events and workshops and take part in The Big Draw annually. Look for the initials SOA in this guide to find members' work. For more information email southoxarts@gmail.com.

The Oxford Art Society, Oxfordshire Craft Guild, South Oxford Arts, West Ox Arts and Oxford Printmakers Co-operative are dynamic groups of artists and makers whom we are proud to support. Look out for these initials throughout this festival guide.

Volunteer area coordinators Paul Bullivant, Caroline Busby, Pam Fyvie, Phillip Jones, Cliff Kinch, Amy Letts, Jo Lillywhite, Jaine McCormack, Susan Moxley, Melissa Orrom-Swan, Graham Perryman, Yvette Phillips, Alex Rae, Francesca Shakespeare, Jill Smith, John Somerscales, Maureen Sparling, Pip Stacey, Jane Tomlinson, Alison Townley & Helen White.

We thank all the other people and organisations who have helped make Artweeks such a success over the years including Alun Ward, Julie Bennett, Wilf Browning, Josh Golding, Direct Publicity, Experience Oxfordshire, Eye Division, OX magazine, The Oxford Times, Ox in a Box, Oxfordshire Library Service, Payne & Son, Wise Investment & former area coordinators and board members. Thank you also to all the Artweeks artists and the thousands of members of the public who make this festival so special.

Our 2026 front cover

The picture on the cover of this year's festival guide is a painting by Artweeks first-timer Rebecca Carrozza.

Rebecca is exhibiting during the first week of the festival (2-10 May) in the pretty village of Aston Tirrold between Didcot and the Ridgeway. You will find her in a charming and popular studio venue with painter Anna Dillon and photographer Hedley Thorne.

See listing 55 for further details.

ASHMOLEAN MUSEUM OXFORD

A photograph of two women in a museum. One woman, wearing a dark blue sweater with a colorful patterned hem, is looking up and to the right. The other woman, wearing a light brown sweater and glasses, is looking up and smiling. They are standing in front of a painting of a man in a black robe. In the background, there are more paintings and museum displays.

Introducing Emma Williams

Inspired by science, history and two bearded fishermen look-alikes, artist Emma Williams is the winner of the 2026 Artweeks Mary Moser Award, an award intended to help develop the career of an artist who has taken up art professionally.

Emma spent over 20 years working at the University of Oxford, most recently at the Botanic Garden, during which she “barely had time to pick up a pencil to be creative.”

“I hated art at school,” she laughs, “until I got two amazing art teachers with long fisherman’s beards and a can-do attitude. They’d say ‘Do you fancy doing raku firing today?’ and we’d pile outside to make a kiln in a day, or they’d organise a spontaneous trip onto the moors to sketch. Art became an adventure!”

Inspired by a trip to Wiltshire’s Fox Talbot Museum, Emma ordered some chemicals and began creating cyanotypes or ‘sunprints’, then adding salt to inks and colours to create pattern and texture.

“I like processes that relinquish some control to the elements, using the science of the sun and salt. Every artwork starts off like a tiny chemistry lab!” she laughs. “I’m also fascinated by hill forts and the ancient patterns on the landscape we use to read the past.”

Emma reflects this in her art, leaving ‘space’ for people to add their own interpretations. She also now teaches art to both children and adults.

“I always wanted to be somebody who could inspire others too as my Cornish teachers did,” she adds.

Emma is exhibiting with the Abbey Group in St Nicolas Church, Abingdon, during the first week of Artweeks (listing 23).

“I like processes that relinquish some control to the elements, using the science of the sun and salt. Every artwork starts off like a tiny chemistry lab!”

Artist call out for 2027

Are you:

a passionate artist or designer-maker who is keen to share your art, skills or story with others?

an emerging artist looking to build your profile?

a seasoned professional looking for contacts, sales and commissions?

an enthusiastic amateur keen to show your work to a wider audience?

or part of a community group with art to share?

There is no selection criteria to be part of the Oxfordshire Artweeks festival. You simply need to live or work in Oxfordshire or be part of an Oxfordshire-based art or makers group. You can choose to exhibit from home or find a venue that suits you better. Many of the full-time artists and makers within these pages took their first steps towards becoming a professional artist with an Artweeks exhibition.

Interested? Come to the free event 'Thinking about taking part in Artweeks?' on Zoom at 7pm on Monday 21st September. Register your interest, and receive the link nearer the time, by emailing artweeks@artweeks.org.

Then, from October, sign up for Artweeks membership and submit exhibition details for next year either as a solo artist or as part of a group. Alternatively exhibit online only and be included in our artist directory pages.
