

I am a local resident, who was born and grew up in Didcot, moving to Blewbury in 2004. I was schooled in Northbourne CofE Primary School and at St. Birinus Secondary School. My art teacher at St. Birinus was the late Roy East who was a well-known local artist and well respected teacher.

A large, vibrant landscape painting of Blewbury. The sky is a mix of red, orange, and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The foreground shows a green field with a wooden fence and a large, leafless tree. A QR code is in the top left corner with the Instagram handle @RITSON7747. Text at the bottom reads: "A proportion of my sales profits go to the Tony Loy Trust. Scan here>>>". A signature "Peter" is in the bottom right corner.

Since leaving school in 1976 I didn't find the time to paint, with a very busy work schedule and then a family of my own. However a week before lockdown in March 2020 I had an operation and was restricted from lifting or stretching for 12 long weeks, so while my wife and sons were cleaning gutters, painting house and clearing our sheds and garages, I was left feeling hopeless. I started to draw and this developed into painting and I have painted ever since.
